

Nithraid

2026 SCHEDULE

Saturday 15th August | 11.30am-5pm

11.00am: Salty Coo Procession gathers at Planestanes

11.30am: Activities on Mill Green open

12.00pm (approx): Salty Coo Procession arrives at Mill Green

1.45pm (approx): Boats start to arrive at Mill Green

3.30pm (approx): The Salty Coo committed to the river

5.00pm: Nithraid activities finish

EXHIBITIONS & ARTWORKS

- ‘A River is not a Line on a Map’ - Nick Millar and Minty Donald
- WhiteMill - wind powered water purification
- ‘Rood Fair - Then, Now, Us’ by photographer Caitlin Wells

TALKS

- Judith Hewett (Museums) explores Representations of The River Nlth in Art
- Artist John Wallace and Professor Pete Smith discuss their latest project 'BURN'
- Caitlin Wells guides us through her photographic exhibition, ‘Rood Fair- Then, Now, Us’
- Artist Emma Gillespie shares insights from her recent Tall Ship adventure

WORKSHOPS

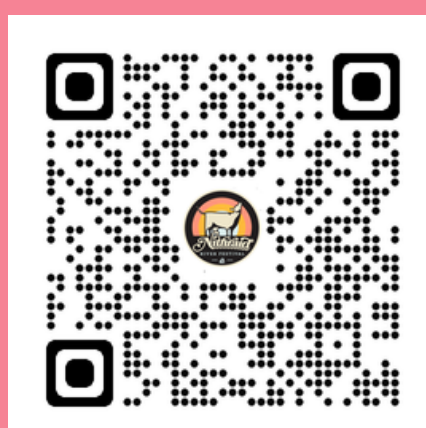

- Flag Design with EcoArt
- Animation with Aidan Nicol
- Opening the Moth Traps! With SWSEIC
- Japanese Hammer printing with Rose Hall

FILMS

Watch a selection of themed films in the Moving Images Cinema Caravan and at the Robert Burns Centre

Plus

COME AND JOIN THE CHOIR!
WITH KATE HOWARD

For more details visit www.nithraid.org